

2014 Relay For Life
Of
Eastern Prince William County
April 26-27, 2014

Woodbridge Senior High School
1003 Old Bridge Road
Woodbridge, VA 22192

The Relay For Life of Eastern Prince William County Relay Committee expresses our sincere gratitude to our magnificent sponsors for this year's event. Without their generous donations we could not manage the event on a minimal budget.

2014 Sponsors, we Thank You!

Hair cuttery®

The Relay For Life of Eastern Prince William County Relay Committee would like to recognize our local fundraising partners for this year's fundraising activities. Their willingness to work with us allowing us to hold fundraising drives at their places of business or donation of gift cards for our drawings assist us in increasing the funds our event raises, which benefits cancer patients in our community.

2014 Local Fundraising Partners, we Thank You!

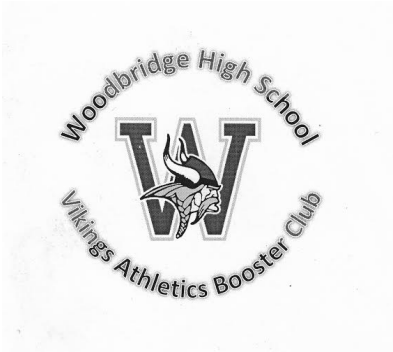

Moe's Peyton Place Bar & Restaurant

Springfield, VA

The Relay For Life of Eastern Prince William County Relay Committee hopes that you enjoy the delicious offerings from our marvelous food vendors or find great joy in the product or service you partake from our other vendors while giving to our spectacular cause. Fighting back through food, fashion, or fancy is still fighting back.

Hair Cattery®

Vendor Name	% of Sales	Hours of Operation
--------------------	-------------------	---------------------------

While most of the vendors have projected hours of operations, it is a first come, first serve situation while supplies last. So don't procrastinate, if it is calling to you seize the moment. And, in case you think there are too many options to choose from or if you are simply a person who calculates the true value of your purchase we wanted to supply you with the donation percentages or amount from each vendor to assist you in your decision.

Event Schedule

Time slots for our official ceremonies are a non-walk time for general relayers/participants; we ask that all relayers and guests are in the bleachers unless otherwise specified by a DJ announcement. For the other performances, workouts, and activities, you are welcome to sit in the bleachers and enjoy if you are not scheduled to walk or man your team's fundraising site at that appointed time.

Times and activities are subject to change, but not to worry...You will have fun! With so many ceremonies, activities, fundraisers, and varied performances; be ready for a day AND night to remember.

11:30 am — 11:59 am Relay Wind-up

Woodbridge Senior High School Drum Line: Mark Carder, Band Director, with student performers: MJ Schreiber, Danny Loza, Grant Richardson, Johnny Monk, Brandon Matthews, Roland Wohlrab, Rachel Chritie, and Samm Sibert — will circle the track signaling to relayers that is time to finalize set-up preparations and head to the bleachers for the opening ceremony. Their energizing and talented performance will hopefully be contagious, setting the tone for an uplifting and talent packed event like not other to date!

12:00 pm — 1:00 pm Opening Ceremony

Presentation of Colors:

WSHS Army JROTC Color Guard Team: Cadet Sergeant Tiffany Orihuela with team members: Katherine Agnew, Chi-Chi Offor, Tiffany Orihuela and Nate Gaines

National Anthem: Caitlin Hughes, a WSHS Choir member and a WSHS Vikings on a Mission's team

Blessing: Pastor Dale Gillis, Dumfries United Methodist Church of Dumfries, VA

Welcome from Dignitaries:

- Mr. David J. Huckestein, Principal of Woodbridge Senior High School
- Michael C. May, Occoquan District Supervisor, Prince William County Board of Supervisors Vice Chair — Mike was first elected Occoquan Supervisor in a special election in January 2007 and then reelected to a full four-year term November 2008 and November 2012.

Welcome from Committee Event Chair: Kathy Jones

Thank you to the WSHS Drum Line for winding us up, the WSHS Army JROTC Color Guard Team for a splendid presentation of the colors, Caitlin Hughes for her beautiful rendition of our National Anthem, Pastor Gillis in delivering a spiritual blessing, Mr. Huckestein and Mr. May for welcoming us so enthusiastically. We are truly looking forward to being here at Woodbridge Senior High School today, and so thankful that they agreed to host us this year.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank some of those that have been of great assistance over the last few years as they are often in the background or play a part later in the day but, play very important parts in our event and should be acknowledged, Mark Goergen, our event photographer for digitally preserving our event, assisting our memory recall for years to come; Richard Adams, whose majestically played bagpipes during our Luminaria Ceremony brings many to tears; Carmel Tanner, for the production of our Luminaria slideshow showcasing friends, family, and loved ones on the large screen, making us feel as if they are right there with us during this solemn ceremony, and the committee would like to send out a very special thanks to Boy Scout Troop 1390 who has assisted us the last several years with set-up, break down, and clean-up; we are extremely grateful for their continued support, we would be hard pressed to do it without them.

Woodbridge Sinfonietta Orchestra: Orchestra Director, Taryn Wood, and her talented students — will honor the survivors and caregivers with a harmonious concert that will have many of the dinners later debating what was sweeter, their dessert or the blissful musical being played for them.

4:00 pm – 6:00 pm Relay Idol –&– Other Entertainment

The relayers that submitted their song choices by April 15th will lift their voices in song and then circle the track requesting donations from those who thought they sang as pretty as any songbird ever; the performer with the most donations after circling the track is crowned the 2014 Relay Idol for the Relay For Life of Eastern Prince William County.

Viketones – Woodbridge Senior High School's Acapella group: Daril Godinez,, Choral Director, with student performers: Kayla Langley, President, Austin Hurlbrink, Vice President, Hala Ghirmay, Secretary, Kimberly McDonnell, Jules Gonzalez, Amanda Ervin, Julie Gulli, Emily Gulli, Aria Austin, Sarah Ervin, Natalie Burgos, Nyaa Bradley, Ariel Friendly, Ginny Driggers, Rachel Christie, Josh Fisher, Ben Fluet, Luis Herrera, Samm Sibert, Avi Mntanez, Andrew Touzinsky, Christian Lamoureux, Tanner Borg, David Ramirez, Eric Polite, Alex Patton — will share their wondrous voices with the relayers while the Relay Idol contestants are circling the track collecting donations.

Relayers will enjoy this magnificent performance while settling into the bleachers for the upcoming Survivor Ceremony.

Woodbridge Senior High School Step Team known as "Unique": Nikki O'Dell, Educator and Step Team Sponsor, with student performers: Jessica Bosompem—Captain, Terren Honay—Co-Captain, Dara Merritt, Taylor Nickerson, Richard Swift, Joyce Greer, Brie Daniels, Tashianna Brown, Tasha Hackley, Julianna Schmitt — will be putting on a powerful performance for us.

6:00 pm — 7:00 pm

Survivor & Caregiver Ceremony

Survivor Speakers — these ladies' stories truly emphasis the importance of staying steadfast in our mission to Finish the Fight!

Symone Prewitt, Girl Scout Junior Troop #3294. Symone, who recently lost her mother to colon cancer, will read us a poem and share a few words with us to honor her mom's memory and those of other loved ones lost to cancer.

Lottye Lockhart, reigning Miss Greater Prince William County. Lottye has participated in many relays over the years and has many family members who have survived or succumbed to various cancers.

Woodbridge Senior High School Dance Class: Liz Fegely, Dance Instructor/Educator, with student performers: Saida Alphonse, Hayden Conatser, Sonja Craddock, Shanisa Dixon, Daizjah Draper, Daitlin Farmer, Josephine Franken, Catherine Galloway, Kailynn Harris, Alexis Jackson, Tamara Johnson-Sellers, Stephanie Parker, Michelle Ramos Narvaez Carigan Smith, Alexis Stephens — will be premiering their "Restless Escape" routine.

Relayers return to line the track (those who are not a survivor or caregiver) to honor the survivors and caregivers during their laps.

The Notes of Salvation, First United Presbyterian's Praise Band, under the direction of Roger Schou will play uplifting music while the relayers that are not a survivor or caregivers return to the track. Then, they will softly play "I Walked", a song created by Roger a few years back by putting the anonymous poet's words that line the track to music, specifically for our Survivor's celebration lap, as we introduce the survivors and they begin their lap. We are truly blessed that they were able to return to our relay to share with us their heavenly music.

Announcement of our Survivors/Heroes of Hope for the Survivor Lap

Caregivers/Hidden Heroes will join the Survivors for the Survivor/Caregiver Lap

7:00 pm – 8:00 pm Jazzercise

Joanna Palkovitz, Lake Ridge Jazzercise Instructor, will lead all those interested in a 40 minute workout, with high and low impact options so everyone can participate. This community workout is fun and gets you energized for all the upcoming fun activities.

8:00 pm – 9:00 pm Miss Robustuous Relay

Any male participant who is brave enough to take a little teasing from his buddies while going that extra step in fundraising is eligible to participate. He simply has to come up with a femme fatal outfit, a pseudo name, and bio for his Relay Persona; keeping in mind of course that this is a family event.

These candidates will be presented in a quick Miss Relay pageant and then they will circle the track collecting donations from those who appreciate their efforts. The contestant who raises the most money while walking the track is crowned as the 2014 Miss Robustuous Relay for the Relay For Life of Eastern Prince William County.

9:00 pm — 10:00 pm

Luminaria Ceremony

What Luminaria Represents: Stable

Bagpipes: Richard Adams, Performer

Slideshow: Carmel Tanner, Producer

Poem — One Little Candle: Leslie Chambers, Hope For The Future team member

2 Minutes of Absolute Silence: Relayers & Guests

10: 00 pm – 10:45 pm

Suburban Gypsies — will perform 3 dances then ask the audience to join them (they will bring hip scarves and veils for the audience participant's use). They are a diverse group of everyday women (ranging in age from 16 to 60) who are students at Magnificent Belly Dance in Manassas. Magnificent Belly Dance IS belly dance for the everyday woman. Watch the performance and then access your feminine energy and join the ladies for some shimmies, hip circles, and snake arms. Then try your hand at some beautiful veil moves.

10: 45 pm – 11:30 pm

HoopJam — Hooping is a fun and playful way to get fit. HoopDance is an expressive art form based on the foundation of Hooping. A HoopJam is a free-flow gathering of Hoopers. So join HOOPurr/Tina B, our hula hoop artist, by "Picking Up a Hoop and Letting Down Your Hair". It is an excellent chance to Rock to the Beat and Move Your Dancing Feet.

11:30 pm – Midnight

Group Activities/Dances — Relayers Choice: Relayers get to choose which of these fun group dances or activities take place by $1.00 donations in containers located at Event Registration/Information station for their favorite(s) from the list below so make your vote count. Voting ends at 8:30 pm.

Conga Line, Limbo, Electric Slide, Macarena, Cha Cha Slide, Chicken Dance, Todo–Todo–Todo, Achy Breaky Heart, Jump On It, Cotton Eye Joe, Hoedown Throwdown, Cupid Shuffle, and Wobble
