A Luminaria has been donated in memory of

A Luminaria will be lit in memory, honor, and support of family and friends who have battled cancer during a special ceremony at the 2011 American Cancer Society Relay For Life of Johnson County on Friday, June 24. You and your family and friends are invited to attend this special ceremony, which will begin at dusk at The University of Iowa's Cretzmeier Track in Iowa City. The names of all Luminaria honorees and memorials will be on display. Proceeds benefit the American Cancer Society – helping you get well and stay well by finding cures and fighting back.
