What is Ms. Relay pageant?

This Pageant is for our dedicated male-relayers willing to put on a pair of high heels and a dress and really give their all to help finish the fight against cancer! Applications for Ms. Relay are now being accepted. Deadline for entry is May 22, 2017. Your Ms. Relay funds MUST be turned in by this date to gain entry into the pageant. The top 10 fundraising (wo)men for this event will take the stage, to compete to win the hearts of the audience and judges. This contest is not for the shy! Slather on that lip-gloss and throw on the wig. Get ready to strut (or stagger) across that stage in those High Heel Stilettoes and tell the crowd all about your/(her)self. High-heel training is highly recommended.

Contestants will be brought on stage to introduce themselves while sporting casual wear. Once all contestants have been introduced, the contestants will perform their chosen talent for the crowd. Finally, the "Queens" will show off their best formal wear and answer a few interview questions asked by the judges.

I have read and understand the rules of the pageant. I (reluctantly) agree to dress up like a woman on stage to support the fight against cancer!
