

Every Candle Has A Name
by John Storey

*We're like sailors in the night... being guided by a light.
Just a beacon on the shore, giving hope and strength and more.*

*Walking through this sea of lights... I sense unity and might.
The power of passion in this place, every memory has a face.*

*These are loved ones we have known...
some still here, but some are gone.
In this time, in our own way... As the footsteps melt away.*

*We see love in every flame... like a never-ending chain.
And we know... that every candle has a name.*

*There's a name of the ones who still are here...
There's a name of those gone - we still hold dear.
There's a name, each one shining in the flames,
And I know... that every candle has a name.*

The American Cancer Society Relay for Life represents the HOPE that those lost to cancer will never be forgotten, that those who face cancer will be supported and that one day cancer will be eliminated. THANK YOU for everything you do in the fight against cancer.

See you next year! May 4-5, 2013

Gordy's Vision

Dr. Klatt had a purpose when he began the 24-hour Relay in 1985. The significance of daytime and nighttime coincides with the journey that all cancer patients go through.

Clear your mind and picture. . .

It's daylight. Life is wonderful. You're healthy, happy and looking forward to the future. You're looking forward to your child's dance recital or taking your child to Disney World for a vacation. You're looking forward to the new house you just bought. You have a new dream job that you're thrilled about.

But then, . . .darkness falls.

You hear those words "You've got cancer", or worse, your child has cancer. Your life has suddenly become very dark. You don't know what the outcome will be. You feel there is no hope in sight. You start your treatments. You're nauseous and you have no hair. You're exhausted from caring for your child and from the agony knowing there's nothing you can do to make him healthy again. You couldn't possibly feel any worse.

Until. . .

The sun starts to rise. The tumor is shrinking. Your treatments are working. You're getting your appetite back. Your child feels well enough to go out and play for just a few minutes. There is hope.

It is now daylight and you're in remission. You have your life back. You've made it through the night and the darkness. You celebrate life in the daylight knowing that the darkness of nighttime is behind you.

That is why we Relay! This is why Relay is an overnight event.

- More than 1,900 people will find answers to their questions about cancer through 1.800.227.2345 and www.cancer.org
- Seven cancer patients will receive rides to their treatments.
- More than 176 people will be told “You have cancer.” The American Cancer Society can help all of them.
- Five women will get beauty tips on how to care for changes in their skin and hair during treatment.
- Ten people will learn more about treatment options, managing side effects and financial concerns.
- Two women recently diagnosed with breast cancer will receive emotional support from someone who’s survived the disease.
- Eight people will become a member of the American Cancer Society Action Network helping us fight back against cancer every day.
- 15 patients received personal health managers to help organize their information on their cancer and treatment.
- Four people will have a place to stay while receiving treatment.
- Two men will get the emotional support they need to fight back against prostate cancer.
- One new person will join nearly 4,000 other Ohio cancer survivors and caregivers as a member of the Cancer Survivors Network at www.cancer.org/csn.
- More than $49,000 in American Cancer Society research will be conducted looking for new treatment options and potential cancer breakthroughs.
- Thanks to your support, more than 12 million people in America who have had cancer and countless more who have avoided it will be celebrating birthdays this year. To learn more about us or to get help, call us anytime, day or night, at 1.800.227.2345 or visit www.cancer.org.

Why We Fundraise In Miami County

National Cancer Information Center

Our phone lines are open every minute of every day to help give people the answers they need about cancer. Each year, we provide free information and support to the nearly 1 million people who call us at 1.800.227.2345.

Look Good...Feel Better

This program is here to help by putting you in touch with trained volunteer beauty professionals who lead small groups through practical, hands-on experience. Women learn about make-up, skin care, nail care, and ways to deal with hair loss such as wigs, turbans, and scarves.

Road to Recovery

This program provides free transportation to and from treatment for cancer patients who do not have a ride or are unable to drive themselves.

Man to Man

This is an educational and support group for prostate cancer survivors or anyone with a family history of prostate cancer. Participants can ask questions and discuss their experiences in a casual and friendly group setting.

Reach to Recovery

Breast cancer survivors are trained to respond to the concerns of women as they face the diagnosis, treatment, and effects of breast cancer.
